

House Resolution No. 2804

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives believe the future of this great state and nation rests in the hands of our young citizens; and

Whereas, the 2008 Graduating Class of the St. Charles County Christian Home Educators is comprised of exemplary young Missourians who will eventually come to the forefront in making decisions affecting the daily lives of all of their fellow citizens; and

Whereas, after graduation ceremonies on May 24, in the year of our Lord 2008, these distinguished young students will continue to strive to achieve their goals and objectives while also learning the duties and responsibilities associated with good citizenship and service to God and Country; and

Whereas, this graduation represents not only an important milestone in a long process of learning, developing, and growing, it is also the beginning of a bright and promising future in a world abundant with opportunities for serving our Creator, honoring your parents, and building the moral fiber of our civilization; and

Whereas, Lauren Nicole Hammond is a member of the 2008 graduating class of the St. Charles County Christian Home Educators:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to applaud and salute Lauren Nicole Hammond for achieving this goal and to wish God's continued blessings for success in all future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Lauren Nicole Hammond.
